

FELICITATION: (2)

We have a duty to all who are social workers, to be felicitated
All those who have spent their time in social service, dedicated
It is a pleasure to welcome those prestigious
And declare them among the few auspicious.
Allah sent each of them as a guide
To spread service for humanity far and wide,
And light up the people surrounding them with their sweet smiles.
With their efforts, they have spread peace and love for miles.
To help the needy, orphans and others, serve
And help the poor, those who deserve,
Those who have wealth, most of them do not bother.
Instead, they will spend on fun and frolic rather.
They say that service to humanity is service to God,
And it is Allah who helps us with HIS Word.
Hence, try to serve Humanity with what Allah has given
Surely your sins will be forgiven,
If you share with others your wealth, health, or knowledge,
And inform them that what little you know will earn you a great privilege.
