

RIGHTEOUSNOUS.

It is not sufficient to only memorise the Quran,

It is incumbent to understand what Allah says through the Furqan.

It is the speech of Allah in which HE commands

‘WE have revealed this book to you to understand

Hence, reflect on its verses and try to implement,

And not consider your wealth as just a favour and compliment.’

HE says: ‘Be thankful to ME for all I have given.

And seek forgiveness so that your small sins may be forgiven.’

It is incumbent upon us to be firm in our conviction

To worship none other than the ONE who gives us all the provision.

However, it is equally important to seek HIS pleasure,

By being righteous and helping the poor and needy from HIS treasure. — ^{3: 134}

If we spend on charity, our wealth will not decrease,

We will find that it will only increase.

If we do good to our family, society, and neighbours,

Allah will reward us with all HIS favours

This will help us receive HIS Grace in this world and the next,

Hence, live your life according to the TEXT.

Only when we understand the Quran,

Can we differentiate right from wrong – the Furkhan.

If we control our anger by seeking HIS refuge from the Shaitan.

We can lead our lives in peace, hence implement what is said in the bayan.

Only when we forgive others and are humble can we expect Allah’s pardon

And can be forgiven for all the small sins we may have done.

When we forgive others who have caused harm to us,

We will be raised in HIS status,

Arrogance and highhandedness are never appreciated

The more we are humble, our respect by others will never be depreciated.
